

I am joining with others in the assoiciation industry to ask for clarification of FCC Fax rules. Removing the established business relationship qualification will force membership organizations into a cumbersome relationship with their own members. There also needs to be clarification of the interpretation of the commerical nature intent. These concerns need to be addressed and FCC needs to understand the importance of this type of communication to associations.